DEPARTMENT NEWS

January 1, 2016 – John Beam Jr. assumed the position of Interim Chief of Police. The announcement was well received by the community as evidenced by comments from citizens on our facebook page. Over the next few months, Chief Beam will be attending the Mid-Winter Chiefs Conference and New Chiefs School – both hosted by the Michigan Association of Chiefs of Police. He has also joined the Northern Michigan Association of Chiefs of Police.

The department welcomed our newest full time officer this month.

Officer Cheyanne Kalman was sworn in as a Police Officer for the City of Evart on January 19, 2016. She comes to us from the Village of Schoolcraft, MI. She is a 2015 graduate of the Grand Valley State University Police Academy. Some of her interests include fishing and photography. Cheyanne is very community oriented and looks forward to forging relationships with the citizens and business owners of Evart.
