

November 2015

DEPARTMENT NEWS

Conversion to the 800mhz radios continues to experience set backs and delays. Programming issues are being addressed and the new goal for implementation is January 2016.

Several candidates were interviewed for the full time officer position this month. Two of the candidates were chosen to proceed to the background phase.

The “Pack the Pantries” campaign to collect food for Osceola/Mecosta food pantries was a great success. The Evart Police Department collected 410 items and the collective total was 1082.

Chief Kendra Backing’s last day with the Evart Police Department will be December 31, 2015. On November 17th, the entire city staff gathered to surprise Chief Backing with a farewell luncheon.
