

September 2015

DEPARTMENT NEWS

September 09, 2015 – The Evart Police Department was invited to a Public Safety Recognition dinner at The United Methodist Church of Evart. Other guests included the Evart Fire Department and EMS officials. All guests were treated a meal, dessert and a gift bag.

September 13, 2015 – The women's restroom in the new pocket park in downtown Evart was found to be vandalized. The mirror above the sink was struck by an object and shattered. Tip information lead to charges pending on two subjects who are minors.

Conversion to the 800mhz radios has begun. Three handheld radios have been purchased and all officers have attended the necessary training to successfully use the new radios. A final conversion date is yet to be determined due to issues with the towers.
